
“ I don't know what we would have done without the expert advice from M&M. We were so concerned about the cost of care, and their guidance made it possible for us to get the help our mother so desperately needed.”

“ I am always delighted to introduce a client to M&M Healthcare Group. I know that the family will receive excellent advice and a caring attitude.”

“ The care choices a family faces are often foreign to them. M&M is so familiar with the various possibilities. Their advice, help, and compassion made it possible for my siblings and me to make a good decision for our father.”

Family care consultation
from M&M Healthcare Group

OUR EXPERTISE, YOUR PEACE OF MIND

A PERSONALIZED PLAN FOR THE PERSON YOU LOVE

You want your relatives to be in the best hands, no matter what challenges they face as they age. We know that caring for an elderly parent can be overwhelming, and you need to trust whom you turn to for help. With our family care consultation service, M&M Healthcare Group brings 30 years of eldercare industry experience to lead you to the best situation for your family, be it home health care, assisted living, or memory care. Here's what we do:

ASSESS We visit the family member wherever he or she may be living. We evaluate the individual's needs and those of the family as a whole.

ADVISE We weigh health, emotional, and financial factors to help you determine the best living situation, from a larger facility with specialized options to a more intimate setting.

ADVOCATE We advocate for your needs and those of your loved one as you implement the plan we've crafted. We find viable options and see them through.

OUR MISSION

To deliver rock-solid compassionate advice—built on experience—to families as they navigate their loved ones' aging.

OUR PASSION

We strive to respect the dignity and the past of the individual, insuring that they remain part of the aging journey. We know that trusting us is your choice, and we return your good faith through uncompromising integrity and honest communication.

ABOUT US

For three decades, M&M Healthcare Group has been a leader in assisted living management. We have worked with all sizes and types of residences nationwide. As we have built our consultation business, we have become ever more attuned to families' urgent need for guidance when it comes to eldercare decisions. That is why our family care consultation service has developed.

WHAT FACTORS DO I NEED TO CONSIDER WHEN IT COMES TO ELDERCARE?

First and foremost the needs of the aging person are important. Is the individual in good health and in search of a friendly and supportive environment or does s/he have more complex mental or physical challenges?

Financial, cultural, and other considerations also matter. Our experience with the spectrum of options within the industry positions us to provide a nuanced and holistic recommendation tailored to your family.
